ATLANTIS SPA

Cenotes are a sanctuary here at the heart of Palomaia. In Mayan culture, life and death emerge from the waters deep inside cenotes as pure symbols of manifestation, transmutation, love, life, and resilience. Places to be reborn in the expert hands of our master healers, temples where bodies become vessels renewed by the healing properties of mother nature.

For the ancient Toltecs—who were the first Mexico—there were various energy centers known as Kuekueyos (luminous spirals) and Tsitsimitl (assemblage points). In these centers, there are a multitude of nerve endings that form a kind of crown. When they harmonize a circular "ollin" movement is produced at an energetic level—like the form of the great "coatl" snake.

To embody a state of well-being, these centers must remain in constant motion so that their fluidity and vitality is in harmony with the universe—to achieve coherence between heaven and earth, between our thoughts and our actions—and thus remind our being to vibrate as the universe does

In lak'ech - I am your other you...

At Atlantis, we work with the activation and harmonization of these energy centers, awakening the consciousness of our being and activating the self-healing of our physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual bodies.

Our mission is to help visitors through modern interpretations of this wisdom that has been passed down through the ages—to be a channel for their metaphysical health and help manifest their energetic self-awareness. Some of this knowledge originates from various codices of the Anahuac culture, the best known being the Borgia codex.

Tonatiuh Sun	Located outside the field of light energy. Leads to the yearning for total freedom.
Meztlī Moon	Located above the head. It manifests itself in the transcendence of being.
Tekpatl Obsidian knife	At the Crown, is the assemblage point of perception, and governs the ability to change state of consciousness.
Chalchihuitl Precious stone	Between the eyebrows. It represents intuition.
Topilli Baton of command	In the throat. Decision making.
Xochitl Flower	In the heart. It is the consciousness of the nahual.
Pantli Flag	At the navel. Capacity for self-awareness.
Ihuitl Feather	In the womb. Capacity for socialization.
Kolotl Scorpion	At the base of the spine. Endows us with reproductive capacity.

Energy Healing Therapies

Temazcal Ceremony

150 mins

The Temazcal is an ancient ceremony that has been inherited from pre-Hispanic cultures and is in some ways similar to a sweat lodge. The temple is a representation of mother earth with hot lava rocks in the middle. It allows us to connect at an elemental level with earth, water, wind, and fire.

During the ceremony, we have the opportunity to be reborn, detoxify our bodies, boost our immune system, and open our respiratory tracts. Accompanying the therapy is a guided circle of songs, intention honoring, and caring through the traditions of this powerful experience.

Biomagnetism Therapy

This innovative, Mexican, therapeutic system applies magnets of opposing polarities, in specific points of the body, to restore optimal health conditions in the target organism. The Biomagnetic Pair detects and corrects the pH of the internal organs and tissues of the body. By impacting a negative magnet at the point of alkalinity and a positive magnet at the point of acidity, it is possible to restore optimal conditions.

Caresses for the Little Ones
